WORK EXPERIENCE

Newmark

Dallas, Texas

Full-Stack Software Engineer

October 2025 – Now

- Stack: Azure, C#, Docker, GraphQL, React, ViteJS, NET, Microsoft SQL Server
- Use agentic workflows to build large-scale dynamic interfaces and distributed systems for a leasing application that accelerates broker workflows
- Leverage Azure to build app services and deploy functions and web applications
- Green-fielded, designed, and shipped to production an AI agency leasing app brokers use to streamline their workflows, freeing up time for revenue generating workflows (30% of company revenue)
- Initiate, maintain relationships with and lead interviews with key stakeholders to increase product adoption and improve development

Target - Back-End & Front-End Software Engineer

Minneapolis, MN

Same Day Delivery Platform

June 2020 – October 2025

- Own the $2B+ same-day delivery flow on Target.com, leading improvements across 6+ micro-frontends to optimize page speed, reliability, and cross-repo deployments, contributing to record holiday conversion rates
- Integrated real-time backend services (inventory APIs, fulfillment systems) into front-end delivery experiences, maintaining synchronization across top of funnel, PDP, cart, account, checkout, etc.
- Collaborated across platform, UX, and fulfillment teams to align system behaviors and customer delivery experiences under peak traffic conditions
- Completely refactored Target's bottom of funnel experience for UX, performance, and code legibility purposes
- Proposed and shipped architectural upgrades to cross-frontend "Add to Cart" logic, reducing cart errors under peak load and enabling faster feature development across delivery, cart, and checkout teams
- Redesigned Product Detail Page (PDP), reducing user drop-off and increasing add-to-cart conversion by streamlining UX and clarifying delivery options
- Led system design for new checkout pipeline, collaborated with product and backend teams, and supported incident resolution across on-call rotations
- Scoped, designed, and implemented dynamic phone number add to cart feature, which is currently saving $100k/yr
- Developed Chef cookbook to create elastic search, logstash, and kibana (ELK) instance for SNAP payment logging and deployed it across all payment servers using Putty

PROJECTS

dallasbillboardconnection.com

- Stack: React, NextJs, Node, Resend, and Vercel
- Executed end-to-end product discovery and requirements gathering via targeted stakeholder interviews with the executive leadership of a $4M annual revenue enterprise to align engineering deliverables with core business KPIs.
- Architected a mobile-first, responsive web application utilizing semantic HTML and asset-optimization pipelines, achieving a perfect 100/100 performance score across all four Lighthouse metrics for maximum search visibility
- Engineered a programmatic SEO strategy and authored targeted conversion copywriting to optimize organic indexing, search engine rankings, and user acquisition metrics.
- Developed and deployed a custom data pipeline tracking user call-to-action (CTA) interactions, integrating Resend SMTP API to route structured, asynchronous analytical reporting directly to ownership for data-driven business decisions
- Configured, deployed, and currently maintains the cloud infrastructure lifecycle, establishing a continuous deployment (CI/CD) workflow ensuring 99.9% availability and zero-downtime maintenance.
